

St. Catherine Hall

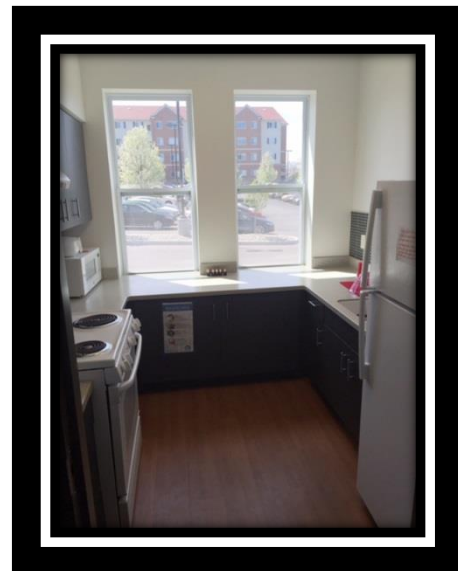

Office of Residence life
Siena Heights University

St. Catherine Residence Hall was named for our patron saint, St. Catherine of Siena. St. Catherine opened in the Fall of 2015. It is a small residential community with 44 residents and a Senior Resident Assistant.

All rooms are suite-style (double rooms sharing a bathroom) and have air conditioning! Each double room measures approximately 15' x 13'.

Our first floor features a community lounge and kitchenette...

Along with a study room and laundry room:

Our second floor includes a second community lounge, a second quiet study room and a larger study space:
